Connect

A connection to history.
A commitment to excellence.
The perfect setting to gather active minds and watch them grow.

Welcome to an unspoiled, one-of-a-kind, AAA Four Diamond escape set on 255 lush acres and nestled among the cypress trees of the headwaters to the legendary Florida Everglades. Rosen Shingle Creek is named for the cypress shingles that sheltered the area's original settlers and is inspired by 1900s-era Spanish Revival architecture that perfectly complements the natural backdrop of enchanting flora, fauna and wildlife.

A unique balance of luxury, business savvy and Old Florida charm, Rosen Shingle Creek features 1,501 elegant guestrooms and suites, each with exquisite views and furnishings, as well as an 18-hole, par-72 championship golf course redesigned by Arnold Palmer Design Company, four pools, a full-service spa and fitness center, and 15 dining and entertainment venues. Its 524,000 square feet of state-of-the-art meeting and event space accommodates all size groups. As Rosen Shingle Creek is independently owned, Harris Rosen is constantly reinvesting in the property, enhancing and refreshing all areas to offer a new experience every time you meet.

Rosen Shingle Creek, where every detail has been thoughtfully designed with meeting planners in mind.

Meet Harris Rosen

Our service extends beyond our hotel doors.

Harris Rosen is not your typical hotelier. Then again, Rosen Hotels & Resorts are anything but typical.

Rosen built his Orlando-based hotels from the ground up with a roll-up-your-sleeves, can-do attitude. Over four decades later, his dedication and vision remain the same: to offer exemplary service and an unsurpassed stay, no matter what you are looking for in an Orlando gathering, from the largest programs to the most intimate meetings.

When it comes to the hotel business, Harris Rosen takes it personally. In fact, it is not uncommon to see him throughout the hotel, assuring every detail is in place to ensure the ultimate guest experience.

Rosen is also well-known in the community for his philanthropic efforts. His donation of $10 million and 20 acres of land to construct the Rosen College of Hospitality Management at the University of Central Florida, and another $2.5 million scholarship endowment, has helped produce some of the best and brightest in the hospitality business.

In short, you would be hard-pressed to find a hotelier more dedicated to guest service than Harris Rosen. And it's precisely that level of personal care that resonates through our associates' actions and throughout your meeting experience at Rosen Hotels & Resorts.
